

Preparation for International Field Experiences in Health

May 10, 2003, 9:00am - 5:30pm
513 Parnassus Avenue, Room S-214

- 9:00am Welcome and Introductions
Major Global Health Issues and Why We Need Global Perspectives in Medical Education
Presenter: Tom Novotny
- 9:30am Why Prepare for Field Experiences?
Presenter: Christine Gabali
- 10:15am The Reality of Field Experiences
Presenter: Chris Kiefer
- 10:50am Break
- 11:00am Cultural Sensitivity--Panel Discussion by Returned Peace Corps Volunteers
- 12:00 noon Lunch served
Small group discussions and ad lib questions
- 1:30pm Infectious diseases in Developing Countries
Presenter: George Rutherford
- 2:15pm Reducing Risks While Traveling Abroad: Water, Immunizations, Environment, Safety
Presenters: various/TBA
- 3:00pm Student case presentations and discussions
Presenters: Gregg Miller, Ann Hwang, Will Nottingham, Vikas Patel
- 4:30pm Practicalities and Questions
Getting There: Visas, Plane Tickets, Consulates, Sources of IH information on the web
Learning Objectives, Products, and Future Support
Introduction to the Trip Report
- 5:30pm Adjourn